

Class Syllabus

Description:

EN303 presents a survey of the works of the major authors of English literature from the Middle Ages through the Eighteenth century and their contributions to English language and literary forms.

Textbook:

*The Norton Anthology of English Literature, The Major Authors
Volume A - Eighth edition*

Stephen Greenblatt, General Editor.

Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to demonstrate the ability to ...

- Read assignments closely and comprehensively and to rephrase ideas in original ways.
- Use vocabulary, historical references, and literary terms correctly.
- Write thoughtful literary responses to assigned reading.

Grading Criteria:

- 35% Quizzes. There will be several quizzes over assigned reading, terms (vocabulary and literary), historical events, and any topics covered during class lectures, videos, discussions, etc.
- 30% Final. The final will be accumulative, i.e. covering all material covered throughout the semester. There will not be a midterm.
- 35% Written Assignments. Students will be expected to write several short but insightful papers that demonstrate both comprehension and contemplation of the assigned text. The format for these assignments are published on the url listed below. → Note: all assignments are due at the beginning of class. Late assignments are not accepted. ←

Web files and email:

www.gsbc.edu/classes/jflint.html

Email: jflint@nvbc.org