Score	Assignment
	Grammar Workbook – none this week
	Word Studies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Vocab Exercise 1 (words 1-12) from class website</li> <li>• In cursive, neatly write spelling words 51-60 three times each.</li> <li>• Diction Exercise 1 (Diction 1-10) from class website</li> </ul>
	Composition – Catch yourself thinking this week. In less than one page, explain what you needed to figure out, and write the series of steps you went through in your mind to figure it out. This is to be typed, double-spaced, in 12-pt Times New Roman. The heading on your paper should follow heading on the “Sample Paper – Grammaticalization” found on the class website. Composition – Consider the question you want to answer in your “Big Paper.” The Big Paper is an 1800-1900 word paper that will shed light on a difficult question. The final paper will be due on Friday, April 11; other work on the paper will be due throughout the semester. First assignment for the Big Paper (due Friday 1/31): Consider the question you want to answer in your Big Paper. Submit a list of three possible questions. I will help you choose one that will work. You may include one question from the paper topic ideas list (http://www.gsb.edu/classes/teacherFolders/rflood/EN102/BigPaperPossibleQuestions.pdf) as part of your three. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Prioritize the questions with #1 being the question you would most like to work on and #3 being the question you would least like to work on.</li> <li>2. Every question must matter to you.</li> <li>3. Every question must appear to be so hard that you are genuinely not confident of finding a definite answer to it in the time between now and April 11.</li> </ol>
